

Melissa Bills
Associate Pastor
St. Timothy Lutheran Church

St. Timothy is Melissa's first pastoral call. She graduated from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota with a Bachelors Degree in English and Religion. Melissa obtained her Masters in Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary. She completed her Luther Candidacy Year at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago. Most recently, she was an Intern Pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church in Rockford, Illinois.

Melissa grew up in Villa Park, Illinois. She has been married to Matt for four years and they currently live in the Uptown neighborhood in Chicago. In May, Matt will graduate from Loyola University's School of Law. Melissa is passionate about music – she likes to sing and plays the flute, piccolo, and piano. She is an avid knitter and loves baseball. As for whether she cheers for the Cubs or White Sox, you'll have to attend one of the forums to ask her!
